April, 2020

Our newest Channeler: Tina McPhee is a very experienced educator and a Reiki practitioner. Tina channels Canadra, a fifth dimensional Andromedan, who is part of a small collective. Canadra and her group are interested in assisting Tina and her clients with various educational and healing issues. Tina will focus primarily on Educators, Parents and Students but will also be available to the general public. Here is a podcast that Tina, Canadra and I did that introduces them and elaborates on their mission.

Crop Circles: Some say that crop circles are hoaxes or pranks and it seems that some are. Noted scientists have supported this supposition but there are some crop circles that appear overnight and defy any scientific explanation. Ovita, channeled by Kate Woodley, tells us that this is not a simple phenomenon while she sheds considerable light on what they really are and what their purpose is. Pyramids: Our scientists can't figure out how the pyramids were built or even why. There is a lot of speculation in this regard but mostly it's a mystery that has puzzled humans for millennia. If you are interested in an ET perspective on this question, click here: <https://youtu.be/Z9T4YBpYd00>.

Six 3D Earth Systems: In the March issue, I stated that meditation, in my opinion, was one of the best, long-term vibration raisers. I also explained that our Egos are a false identity that are designed to keep our vibration low and in the 3D range until we have had all of the 3D experience that we signed up for.

Somewhat like the Ego, we have also created six major 3D systems that are also designed to keep our vibration in the 3D range until we have gained all of the 3D experience that we are here to acquire. It is helpful to understand these systems and how they keep our vibration in the 3D range if we are to rise above them. Here are the six systems with a little explanation of how they hold us back and how they are now shifting as we are waking up and leaving 3D.

1. The Financial System creates an environment of scarcity or lack, which sets up a state of fear and keeps our vibration low. It does this by encouraging debt, by being so complicated that very few people understand it and by creating a precarious money system that has nothing of value backing it. This is opposite to our natural state of abundance. As we wake up, this is beginning to shift. Examples of this are: 1) More transparency and regulation in management and Boards of Directors, 2) Individuals are taking more charge of their banking and investments, 3) Blockchain technology and alternative currencies are emerging and 4) We see more business decisions taking social and environmental issues into account.

2. The Education System is largely based on an old Prussian system that was designed to produce soldiers and civil servants. Obedience and conformity were the designed outputs and that suited the masters of the industrial revolution who wanted these qualities in their line workers. This system created a fear of failure and implied that we were ignorant unless we succeed in this system. Of course, at a higher vibration, we tap into universal wisdom and no longer need this fear-based system. As we wake up, we are moving away from this one-size-fits-all system and are creating higher vibrational schools. We see specialized schools for the arts, schools for athletes and curricula that encourage right brain development, more individual attention and self-reliance.

3. The Religion System has traditionally told us that we are separate from God and that God is to be feared. It has instilled further fear by telling us that we are sinners, we need to be saved and God's love is conditional upon us towing the line. What do you think that does to our vibration? As we wake up, we see churches engaging in more community involvement, charitable works and lightening up considerably on the hell-fire and damnation preaching.

4. The Food and Water System was originally designed to give us energy. Recently, taste and convenience have become the goal with fast food, super-sized food, steroids, antibiotics, pesticides, etc. all depleting our energy and lowering our vibration. This also is shifting. We are seeing more responsible land management, waste disposal and food production. We also see more organic vegetables in supermarkets, more nutritional education and better water such as reverse osmosis, distilled and spring water – all vibration raisers.

5. The Medical System has taught us that we are prone to dis-ease and that we must rely exclusively on physicians and chemicals for good health. Both the fear of dis-ease and the adverse side effects of the prescribed chemicals keeps us in a constant state of fear and low vibration. As we begin to awaken, we see a shift to dis-ease prevention, alternative and complimentary systems, energy healing, herbal remedies and an understanding that dis-ease originates in our thoughts and emotions and that perfect health is our natural state.

6. The Media System keeps us in state of low vibration in three major ways. First, through massive advertising it generates the fear of missing out or not being included or “with it” if we don’t participate in the other five systems. Fast or junk food, financial services, big Pharma, etc. are among the biggest advertisers. The second vibration inhibitor is through the generation of negative news, which can make us feel unsafe, angry, or fearful. Thirdly, the movies and TV programs that portray violence, anger, revenge, etc. are all vibrational downers. Today, the media is no longer as controlled by a small number of people with deep pockets. The Internet, social media and freedom of information legislation are changing that,

To sum up, we created these systems to give us a 3D experience. Mostly, they have done their job well and, as we are now waking up, we can make informed choices that will move us to 4D.

A big thank you to Ricardo Martinez who woke me up to these systems.

Gail Scott is the owner of Bosie International which provides advisory and coaching services related to relationships, sexuality and other aspects of personal growth.

About a year and a half ago, Gail started channeling Alaster. Alaster is a 6th dimensional spiritual collective that brings light to where there is darkness. In this video, Alaster introduces itself.

On October 14, 2019, Canadian Thanksgiving, Colleen Bradley and I did a podcast. It began with me asking Colleen a little about herself and how channeling has impacted her life. Colleen then channeled Apatite, a 6D spiritual Being. For the remainder of the podcast, Apatite and I talk about our planet, the human species and how Apatite and her collective are assisting us as we move through a critical time in our evolution.

Dr. Riley Moynes is the bestselling author of “The Money Coach”, “The Four Phases of Retirement: What to Expect When You’re Retiring” and “The Ten Lessons: How You Too Can Squeeze All the Juice Out of Retirement”.

Following these books, Riley has undertaken a series of podcasts where he features individuals whom he considers are squeezing all the juice out of retirement.

Recently, I was Riley’s podcast guest and we talked a lot about channeling:

Interested in becoming a Channeler? Through hypnosis and channeling practice sessions, I have helped 17 individuals to become Channelers

I charge my normal hypnosis rate of $150 per hour for the first two sessions, which are usually an hour and a half, and one hour. After two sessions, we usually know whether or not we have a Channeler. If we do, I will work with that person, free of charge, until they are either capable of providing group and individual channeling sessions on their own or until they wish to stop.

If you would like to explore this adventure, send me an email at: peter@peterhdennis.com.
