
The Channeling Connection

Karen Ashby was the woman who started me off on this channeling adventure.

It began in the summer of 2018 when I was doing a little hypnosis study to explore whether or not humans had previous lifetimes on other planets or in other realities. Karen volunteered to be a subject and, while in hypnosis, started to report being in a space ship observing Earth. In questioning Karen, the conversation shifted and I was prompted to ask: “Are we channeling? The answer came back in the affirmative and I followed up with a barrage of questions, like: Who are you? Where are you from? What are you doing here? Etc.

Without getting into all of the details, I can report that Karen went on to become an outstanding Channeler and introduced us to The Pleiadians. Shortly afterwards, we did a podcast and, although it was a little over a year and a half ago, this podcast is still both timeless and timely. Incidentally, it seems that most of us have lived in other realms and weren’t always human.

When I was at university, I had a friend who was studying Mathematics. One day, he announced that, at some advanced level, Math began to blend with Philosophy. At the time, that statement just didn’t compute with me and I never thought much about it since.

Recently, however, I came across this video featuring Albert Einstein and some of his observations about God, love, the universe and much more. It’s very enlightened.

Of the 18 Channelers whom I have worked with so far, Gail Scott channels the largest array of Energies.

I recently got together with Gail over Zoom and in one 21 minute sitting, she channeled

The Infinite Intelligence, Alaster, Sophia, The Love Matriarch and again, The Infinite.

We were going to make separate videos for each Entity but as they all blended so well together, we decided to leave the recording as one.

I also have to tell you that I didn't set up Zoom properly so as to capture Gail alone, Consequently, you have to watch me sitting spell-bound in my office, doing little else.

Everything Happenes for a Reason. Oh yeah? Do we really believe that or is it just an expression we use to sound enlightened when something we don't like shows up?

If you really believe it, as I do, then what is the reason that Covid-19 showed up?

I think there are many reasons and so does the British poet Tomos Roberts.

Colleen Bradley channels a collective of high vibrational, spiritual Beings (6D+).

Beings of this nature don't have names. They recognize each other by vibrational frequency and communicate telepathically. For Humans, however, it is handy to have a name by which we can refer to them.

At the time I first met this collective, Colleen was exploring an interest in minerals and was drawn to a group of phosphate minerals, often associated with healing. When I asked for a name, I was given the name of one of these minerals, Apatite.

In this video, Apatite introduces itself and explains its mission.

If you are a subscriber to this newsletter, you likely know that, in the higher realms, thought is the engine of creation. In our realm (3D), where we have time and space, generally, it takes time to manifest what we think about and there has to be a few other conditions in place as well.

Still, however, when our thoughts are worrisome, we attract what we worry about and when we fear something, we amplify that fear.

Now, here we are with the coronavirus and it is worrisome. So how do we deal with it?

In this recording, Karen Heywood channels The Crystal Beings, who suggest a helpful and, in my opinion, a well balanced strategy.

Keda Edwards Pierre channels Naeyla, who is a spiritual Being.

In this video, Naeyla explains who she is and what her purpose is in channeling through Keda.

She goes on to explain that everything has purpose and, when something happens that we don't prefer, we benefit when we set out to discover what that purpose may be. The alternative is to lament the situation and that only creates suffering.

Note: In Gail's video on page two, the recording ended abruptly without finishing the last couple of sentences. Fortunately, not much was lost and Gail had her handy little backup audio recorder on. Channeling Practice Sessions: When I first start working with Channelers, one of the first pieces of advice I was given was for them to practice frequently. This helps the Channeler to better access the Being, align better energetically with him/her/it and to build confidence if he or she wishes to take this skill to the public.

To that end, I am on the lookout for volunteers who would like to sit in as practice subjects. This doesn't happen a lot but it usually does for each Channeler once or twice before they can "Go public" on their own.

As a volunteer, you would be posing as a participant in a public, group event or as a client in a private, one-on-one counseling session. In both cases, you would get to ask the Being any questions that you wish. Whether or not you are selected would depend on the Channelers' current practice needs and the number of volunteers who apply. If you would like to be considered, send me an email and I will put you on my volunteer list. Thanks for considering.

Interested in becoming a Channeler? Through hypnosis and channeling practice sessions, I have now helped 18 individuals to become Channelers.

I charge my normal hypnosis rate of $150 per hour for the first two sessions, which are usually an hour and a half, and one hour, respectively. After two sessions, we usually know whether or not the client will be a Channeler. If we do, I will work with that person, free of charge, until they are either capable of providing group and individual channeling sessions on their own or until they wish to stop.
